Discover Figs on the Funcho, an idyllic location in the beautiful countryside of Portugal's Algarve region, with direct views over Barragem do Funcho and the river. Nestled here is a hidden gem, The River House (a 100 year old converted farmhouse), that is set back in the hills surrounded by fig and carob trees, wildflowers and pathways winding down to the water's edge. Offering complete privacy, this is the perfect choice for a romantic getaway, family holiday, special interest holiday, intimate celebration, wedding or a digital nomad destination.

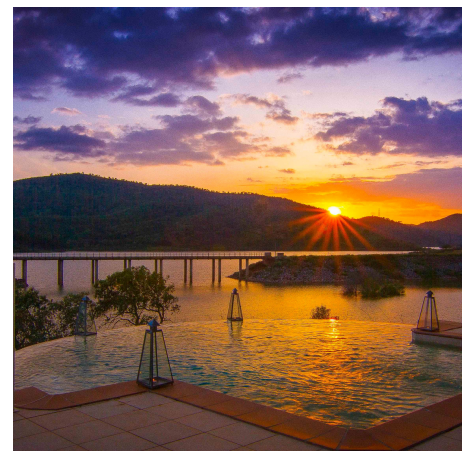

You will find beautifully appointed accommodation and comfortable social areas. Large decks and terraces provide a daily choice for outdoor dining with uninterrupted views of the countryside and Funcho Dam. Figs on the Funcho sleeps up to 10 guests and accommodates up to 70 visitors for any special celebrations. The River House is rented out as a B&B except for June - August when it is rented out for exclusively stays. Kayaking, fishing, paddle boarding, wild swimming and walking are popular outdoor activities.

As well as a stunning holiday location, Figs on the Funcho offer holiday experiences: culinary cooking courses, painting and walking holidays, Yoga Workshops, digital nomad retreats and other fun events like art exhibitions, pizza and champagne evenings, coffee and cake meet-ups, carob harvesting celebration with tapas and casual supper clubs.
